building on mast's astute and lively history of cinema, kavin has refined and updated the fascinating story of cinema's evolution from its earliest beginnings to the digital age, probing deeper than most movie texts. he takes us into the studio vaults, corrects the record, discloses what goes on inside the industry, clarifies the mysteries of movie technology, and offers a precise, thoroughly researched account. kavin's analysis is witty and engaging, rich in instructive insights and entertaining illustrations of the art, history, technology, business, and fun of film.

In the seventh edition of A Short History of the Movies, this volume offers students a panoramic overview of the worldwide development of film from the early Mack Sennett and Charlie Chaplin shorts through the studio heyday of the 1930s and 1940s and the Hollywood Renaissance of the 1960s and 1970s to the pictures and their technology appearing in the multiplexes of today. This new edition, which has been revised and rewritten to reflect current scholarship and recent industry developments and new films and filmmakers, represents an accurate, scrupulous updating of a classic. It features an emphasis on key historical and aesthetic principles, provides solid scholarship in an accessible, intelligent, and readable format, includes almost 500 color and black and white photographs, including frame enlargements and production stills, includes evaluations of great works from such directors as Griffith, Ford, Scorsese, and Hitchcock, illuminates conflicts and controversies in many areas of filmmaking, also features extensive treatment of international film, enables comparison and contrast between American films and those of other countries.
